DEFENDANTS.

Civil No. SX-2022-CV-401

ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court for review sua sponte. On April 25, 2024, a temporary restraining order was entered to enjoin Defendants, their officers, agents, servants, employees, and attorneys, and any other persons who are in active concert or participation with them from calling or conducting any meeting or special meeting under the name of the Association of St. C Condominium Owners, Inc. for the removal of Board members on Thursday, April 25, 2024 or any other day. Under Rule 65 of the Virgin Islands Rules of Civil Procedure, the temporary restraining order “expires at the time after entry -- not to exceed 14 days -- that the court sets, unless before that time the court, for good cause, extends it for a like period or the adverse party consents to a longer extension” and “[t]he reasons for an extension must be entered in the record.” V.I. R. CIV. P. 65(b)(2). At this time, due to the recent reassignment of this matter—per an order entered by the Presiding Judge on April 30, 2024—from the Honorable Harold W.L. Willocks to the undersigned, the Court finds that there is good cause to extend the temporary restraining order for an additional 14 days so that the undersigned has the opportunity to review all the filings and become familiar with the record in this matter. Accordingly, it is hereby:

ORDERED that the expiration date for the April 25, 2024 temporary restraining order shall be EXTENDED for an additional fourteen days and shall EXPIRE FOURTEEN DAYS FROM THE DATE OF THE PRIOR EXPIRATION DATE.

DONE and so ORDERED this 8th day of May 2024.
